The Cultural Human Resources Council in partnership with SIAST and SMPIA are pleased to invite you to participate in a 2 part-workshop for digital media producers; an online tutorial combined with a face-to-face session. It will provide you with an understanding of basic project management concepts and skills with an introduction to the Agile methodology. Prior to the session participants will have access to online resources. And throughout the day they'll be encouraged to ask questions and to share practical experiences and best practices.

October 7, 2011
